** NO ONWARD CHAIN *** A substantial stone property providing spacious and immaculately presented four bedroom accommodation arranged on three levels, together with a large garden and an open fronted garage with useful loft/workshop above. Positioned on the periphery of this noted village with views over the surrounding countryside, some seven miles west of Mold. This former farm building was converted in 2000, to provide a particularly spacious and versatile family home of considerable character, retaining many of the original features whilst combining modern amenity. Features include a generous ground floor living area with a large 'open plan' kitchen/family room with extensive range of oak units, range cooker and multi fuel stove, lounge with views over the garden, sitting room and a study. A turned staircase leads to three bedrooms on the first floor, with the principal bedroom having an a high vaulted ceiling, fitted wardrobes and ensuite / dressing room; second bedroom with 'shared' ensuite and a family bathroom. A further 4th bedroom is located to the upper floor with an adjoining snug. Oil fired central heating system and double glazing. Ample off road parking and additional parking with store to the rear of the garage..

LOCATION

This attractive property is located along the A541 Mold/Denbigh Road on the periphery of Nannerch village, a Designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. To the rear is a large private gardens overlooking surrounding countryside, with pond and an extensive stone patio. There are numerous country walks and bridle paths within the area and up into the Clwydian Hills, and whilst being rurally situated the area is ideally placed for ease of access onto the A55 Expressway at Pentre Halkyn, some five miles distance, enabling ease of access along the North Wales coast to Chester (17½ miles) and motorway network beyond. There is a popular inn and primary school in the village, a doctors' surgery and parish church. The local market town of Mold is some seven miles, which provides a comprehensive range of shopping facilities catering for most daily needs, leisure facilities, secondary schools and several popular restaurants.
