LOCATION

The property occupies a slightly elevated position along this highly regarded road, renowned for its individual quality homes, about four miles from Mold. There is a small shop and inn with restaurant to the centre of the village, and popular primary schools in the neighbouring villages of Gwernaffield and Cilcain. The area is noted for its scenic beauty with numerous county walks, and whilst rural situated, the local market town of Mold with its twice weekly street market is within a short drive. The town also provides a comprehensive range of shops, leisure facilities and is ideally placed for those wishing to commute to the larger centres at Chester, Deeside and beyond.
