LOCATION

Bryn Nannerch stands in a private setting just on the periphery of this popular rural village located off the Mold to St Asaph road, some 5 miles west of Mold. It is a pretty rural village centred on the historic church and inn and is close to the lower slopes of the Clwydian hills in An Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

The house has been carefully restored and refurbished by the owners over the last 30 years to provide a large and adaptable family home providing a wealth of original features with modern amenities. The front of the house is predominately south facing with the two reception rooms, dining room and three principal bedrooms having splendid views over the landscaped gardens and wooded countryside beyond.
