A unique four bedroom converted period barn providing a light and airy home with a wealth of original features together with a large purpose-built L shaped hobby and cinema room with facilities and adjoining double garage, set within private grounds in a secluded setting on the periphery of the village.

Ruthin – 2 miles, Mold 9.5 miles, Chester 23 miles.

It affords outbuilt entrance porch, lounge, dining room, day lounge, kitchen/breakfast room, rear hall/utility, shower and WC, first floor landing, bedroom one with en suite shower room, three further double bedrooms and large luxury bathroom.

Detached purpose-built annex providing large hobby and cinema room with utility area, shower room. Double garage, informal gardens with secluded patio.

LOCATION

Cysgod Yr Yd is located in a predominantly rural setting just on the periphery of the village some 2 miles from Ruthin. It enjoys splendid views in a westerly and southerly direction across adjoining farmland towards the historic market town of Ruthin and along the vale.

Ruthin provides a wide range of facilities catering for daily needs together with primary and secondary schools with Brynhyfryd school affording swimming pool and gym and the renowned Ruthin Public School with its playing fields and handsome façade, both approximately 1 mile distant. Llanbedr is conveniently placed for access towards Mold, Deeside and beyond with Liverpool approximately 50 miles distant.

The house was originally a large stone and timber framed barn considered to date from the Late 16th century. It was converted and extended in the late 20th century to provide a spacious and versatile home complemented by a wealth of exposed timbers particularly to the first floor with exposed wall and ceiling beams and fine A frame roof trusses and purlins. It stands at the head of its own gated driveway with wide sweeping lawns and established hedges providing privacy.

LOUNGE & DINING ROOM

The house is approached via an outbuilt entrance porch which opens to a splendid open plan lounge/dining room. It is a very large and versatile area providing a dining room to one end, sub divided from the lounge by an impressive solid oak turned staircase and large window with westerly aspect providing natural light.

The lounge area has a large westerly facing picture window with views across farmland and beyond towards the Clwydian Hills. With deep slate lined fireplace and a large multi fuel stove. The room can be readily sub divided.

OUTSIDE

The grounds are extensive with decorative entrance gates and a long tarmac driveway leading to a wide parking area and thereafter gates open to a slated courtyard to the front of the garage, hobby room and the northwestern side of the house.

To the rear is a secluded courtyard with a wood grain effect patio area, an area designed for a hot tub with screen wall and window providing aspect along the vale. Beyond is a very useful enclosure with a garden shed and general storage area.
