WELCOME TO TYN Y CAEAU
Nestled in the picturesque foothills of the Dee Valley Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB), Tyn Y Caeau offers the perfect blend of rural charm and modern convenience. Just a two-minute drive from local amenities, this elegant five-bedroom detached residence, dating from the early 17th century, stands within private and informal gardens of about 0.47 acres.

HISTORY AND HERITAGE
Dating from the early 17th century, the farmhouse was originally part of the Hartsheath Estate. It retains many original features, including open beamed ceilings.

KEY FEATURES
• Period Charm: A residence dating back to the early 17th century , incorporating a former cottage and original dairy from a large working farm.

• Modern Upgrades: Extensive refurbishment, including a reslated main roof and a remodeled kitchen/dining area.

• Spacious Layout: The house affords an out-built and enclosed porch, main hall opening to a central inner hall with staircase, lounge, day room, luxury kitchen/dining and family room, large utility room, and adjoining cloakroom.

• Bedrooms: First floor landing, two bedrooms with en suites, and a family bathroom.

• Heating: Oil heating throughout.

Parking: Enclosed tarmacadam driveway providing ample parking and an attached double garage.

MODERN LIVING WITH CHARM
Step through the front door into a warm reception room, perfect for welcoming guests, with ample storage for wellies, shoes, and coats. The furnishings throughout Tyn Y Caeau is a blend of Farmhouse Modern and Farmhouse Chic, with a deliberate emphasis on minimalism.

As soon as you enter the sitting room, you can imagine family Christmases gathered around the traditional log burning stove, whilst you look out at the snow covered Clwydian range.

The home has a second sitting room, which is perfected for a family play room, home study or a quiet reading nook.

KITCHEN AND FAMILY ROOM
The kitchen has been remodelled to provide a large, luxurious kitchen, dining, and family room featuring a ‘Tegla’ fitted kitchen with AGA. A large four-section bi-fold door opens to the west-facing private gardens, and space for a large table perfect for family gatherings and entertaining.

For those cold mornings, the kitchen includes heated floors to keep your toes warm. A new wood floor was installed in 2022 and last year the previous homeowners also installed new carpets throughout.

BEDROOMS AND BATHROOMS
The master suite offers an unobstructed view of the Clwydian/Dee Valley AONB, vaulted ceilings, and a completely redone ensuite bathroom with high-quality furnishings, a heated towel rack, and a rain shower. Three of the five bedrooms provide commanding views of the AONB, and one has plumbing ready for a second ensuite.

GARDENS AND OUTDOOR SPACE
Set within private gardens of about 0.47 acres, the property offers a serene outdoor space with splendid views. On a hot day you can open the bifold doors, turn up the music knowing you won’t disturb any neighbours and lay back with a gin & tonic in hand. And when the leaves begin to drop in Autumn, you can watch the harvest from your windows, take crisp walks down colourful lanes and pick apples from the gardens four apple trees.

LOCAL ATTRACTIONS
Located just 1.5 miles from the renowned Offa Dyke Path and a 30-minute drive from Snowdonia National Park, Tyn Y Caeau is perfect for outdoor enthusiasts. Nearby Ruthin offers a variety of shops, pubs, and restaurants, including the White Horse in Hendrerwydd and the Griffin, known for its quality ales and Sunday roasts.

The town centre is within one mile, providing a wide range of facilities catering for most daily requirements. The A494 and A525 offer ease of access for those wishing to commute towards Chester and Mold.
