Price

£450,000

AN IMPOSING AND BEAUTIFULLY PRESENTED FIVE BEDROOM DETACHED HOUSE WITH GARAGE AND PARKING, STANDING IN A PROMINENT POSITION TO THE CENTRE OF THIS POPULAR VILLAGE, SOME 14 MILES WEST OF RUTHIN.

Originally built and used as a bank and managers accommodation, this handsome building has been sympathetically remodelled and refurbished to provide a very spacious and versatile family home. It affords a stunning 32'9ft x 21'10 ft lounge with fine oak flooring and a feature fireplace with coloured enamelled stove, a large and highly appointed L-shaped kitchen and dining room, inner hall and large utility room and a luxury cloakroom and WC. To the first floor is a central landing, large principal bedroom with luxury ensuite shower room, four further double bedrooms and luxury bathroom. Oil heating with underfloor to the majority of the ground floor accommodation, newly upgraded acoustic double glazed windows in part, landscaped, low maintenance gardens with wide gravel areas, secluded and sheltered patio, a covered area with a boiler room and adjoining garage. Inspection highly recommended.

LOCATION

Pen Y Banc is a unique family residence which has been refurbished to a high standard throughout to provide an elegant family home. It stands adjoining the cross roads and historic war memorial in the heart of the village, close to the church, inn and primary school. The village stands close to the Eryri National Park with the A5 providing direct access towards Betws-y-Coed and the north Wales coast and southwards towards Bala Llangollen. The house is dated circa 1905 and has a substantial stone dressed façade to the former bank entrance.

THE ACCOMMODATION COMPRISES
