OUTSIDE

The property stands on a minor country lane about 1 mile from the centre of Ruthin in an area noted for its many country walks being quite close to an historic Grade II listed bridge over the Dwr lal a minor tributary of the Clwyd and within close proximity of Llanrhydd church. There is a wide slated parking area to front providing space for two or three cars with steps leading down to the front elevation and entrance to the cottage. The pathway extends around to the left hand side with a paved and gravelled domestic area with coal bunker, timber panelled garden shed and seating area together with established flower borders with a profusion of native annual plants and a timber framed octagonal greenhouse. Beyond a pergola with established rose leads through to a very sheltered gravelled seating area with far reaching southerly views over adjoining farmland towards the Clwydian Hills.

The main garden is principally to the south-western side and presents a truly delightful cottage garden which has been developed over many years to include a profusion of specimen trees, perennial and annual plants providing a wealth of colour and interest throughout the seasons. There is a timber framed and panelled summerhouse together with shaped lawns, winding pathways, small wildlife pond, mature silver birch tree and weeping willow and a number of fruit trees. The gardens extend towards Dwr lal with a further timber framed and panelled potting shed and a raised decked area opening to a very useful and large workshop/sun room.

CHALET

Timber framed and panelled construction, the main room measures 15'6" x 11'7" with glazed windows, pitched roof and electric light and power installed. Beyond is a useful home office or work room measuring 11'7" x 7'6"

DIRECTIONS

From the centre of Ruthin proceed down Well Street and on reaching the junction with Station Road bear right. On crossing the pelican crossing immediately bear left onto Llanrhydd Street. Continue through the sandstone cutting and take the first left towards Llanrhydd. Continue past the church and the property will be found on the right.
