Melin Y Bwlch

Cerrigydrudion, Corwen, Conwy,
LL21 9UB

Price
£600,000

A UNIQUE GRADE II LISTED FORMER CORN MILL DATING FROM THE 18th. CENTURY SET WITHIN MATURE AND VERY PRIVATE GROUNDS OF ABOUT 2 ACRES. LOCATED IN A SECLUDED AND SHELTERED VALLEY ON THE PERIPHERY OF CERRIGYDRUDION.

This imposing building has been converted to provide a large and well proportioned 5 bedroom house combining modern amenity with a wealth of original features, together with the original mill wheel and the greater part of the drive gears and shafts still in-situ to the ground floor workshop. It affords external steps opening to lobby, a very large open plan lounge & dining room with vaulted ceiling, modern fitted kitchen, inner hall, main bedroom, day room/bed 5 and bathroom. Lower ground floor hallway, 3 double bedrooms and shower room. A large workshop with the gear wheels to the mill together with the former mill wheel.

Mature grounds bounded by a minor stream, together with sweeping lawns and an established kitchen garden to the former mill pond.

LOCATION

The property stands in a very secluded rural environment in the heart of rolling countryside in a secluded valley about 0.5 mile east of the A5 and Cerrigydrudion. The nearby town stands on the road junction with the B5105 Ruthin road and is close to the Brenig reservoir. The village has a general store, primary school, and two popular inns together with secondary education available in Bala, Ruthin and Betws Y Coed.

FORMER MILL

Located to the lower ground floor is the original water wheel, an impressive structure which interconnected with the mill pond still visible to the rear garden. Thereafter, the shaft leads through to the main mill where the original gearing is still in situ. It is an impressive sight with substantial supporting timbers, wrought iron ring gears and shafts which would have interconnected with the threshing room to the first floor. It has a stone floor in the main with high open beamed ceiling, an original pine cabinet through which the milled flour would flow into the three chutes and sacks below. Modern Worcester oil fired condensing boiler with pressurised cylinder to one side, fitted shelving.

OUTSIDE

The property stands within extensive grounds of about 2 acres. It stands in a very sheltered rural setting to the lower part of this secluded and quite sheltered valley approximately 1/2 mile from the centre of Cerrigydrudion. It is approached via a country lane with a wide gravelled driveway leading in providing ample space for parking several vehicles.

The gardens to the southern side are bounded by a minor country stream which meanders through the property and from the upper part of which the original mill race would have been created leading through to the mill pond, the remains of which are still visible to the rear. There are extensive informal lawns with numerous maturing deciduous trees to include horse chestnut and oak.

There is a wide gravelled area to the front of the house with steps leading down to a patio area and walkway over the stream.

The gardens extend around to the rear where there is an established kitchen garden with hen shed and run and timber framed potting shed. Timber clad metal storage container with electric light and power installed.
