The Arboretum, Coventry

Located on the southern outskirts of Coventry, Gibbet Hill is an area of predominantly executive detached houses and bungalows. Adjacent to Warwick University and in particular their advanced research facilities this housing development is renowned for attracting academics from across the world with ease of access not only to Warwick University, but also Warwick Business Park.

Offered with no onward chain this executive detached house is situated in a quiet backwater on Gibbet Hill, Coventry. Having been extended and modernised by the current owner the property provides generous accommodation arranged over two floors. Benefitting double glazing and gas central heating the accommodation comprises a recessed porch, central hallway with cloakroom and doors off to the three reception rooms and refitted and extended kitchen with a large utility and boot room.

On the first floor are five well proportioned bedrooms, a refitted en-suite bathroom and further family bathroom.

Outside is a block driveway providing hardstanding that leads to a single side garage. The rear garden has a large terrace/patio that leads directly off the house and a large formal lawn which is enclosed by panelled fencing.
