65 Winifred Street

Nestled in one of Old Town's most sought-after streets, this charming two bedroom end-terrace blends period charm with modern functionality. Boasting one of the largest gardens on the street, the property features exposed red brick accents, original Victorian floorboards, gas central heating, and double glazing. The ground floor offers a welcoming hallway, a bay-windowed sitting room with an open fire and exposed brick chimney breast, a separate dining room, a galley fitted kitchen, and a versatile lean-to storage area. Upstairs, the stunning master bedroom showcases a mahogany beam and ample space while the second bedroom is perfect for a double bed or home office. The well-appointed bathroom includes a claw-foot corner bath and Victorian-inspired finishes. Outside, the property offers an expansive garden with a pergola-shaded patio, a trellised wisteria arch, and a maple tree providing privacy. The property previously had planning permission for a rear and loft extension. Ideally located just minutes from Nationwide, Intel, and Croft Nursery & Primary School, this home is a rare find.
