The property retains its historic charm with original period features, exuding character and warmth. The accommodation is thoughtfully arranged, with a ground floor bedroom and en-suite that provides convenience and accessibility, while the two first-floor bedrooms offer privacy and picturesque views of the surrounding countryside.

Upon entering, you are greeted by an inviting entrance porch, perfect for storing shoes and coats. The main hallway leads to all ground floor rooms. The cosy lounge, featuring a focal inbuilt wood burner, is a welcoming space ideal for relaxing and spending time with family. The bright conservatory is a versatile addition to the home, serving as a second reception room where you can unwind and enjoy the beautiful hillside views.

The third bedroom is a ground floor bedroom with a fully equipped en-suite shower room, currently accessed via the conservatory. The third bedroom can easily double up as a work from home space/study.

The modern kitchen diner is the heart of the home, fully equipped with contemporary appliances and ample storage space. It is perfect for preparing family meals and entertaining guests. Adjacent to the kitchen, the pantry and utility room provide additional storage and practicality, with a door leading out to the large rear garden. The garden is level and surrounded by mature trees and shrubs, creating a private and serene outdoor space for children to play or for hosting gatherings.

The first floor comprises two well-proportioned double bedrooms, both enjoying stunning hillside views across neighbouring fields towards Quintrell Downs. The main bathroom, featuring part-tiled walls and a white suite with an electric shower over the bath, serves the upstairs bedrooms.

Outside, the property offers a generous driveway with off-street parking for two cars. The rear garden is a highlight, being level, enclosed, and sunny, with plenty of space for outdoor activities and relaxation. Surrounded by established trees and shrubs, it provides a peaceful and secluded environment.
