A stunning and contemporary detached house that has been built to exacting standards and near passive house status. Sitting in approximately 4 acres of well-maintained grounds in a pleasant semi-rural location, yet only two miles from the market town of Holsworthy with a large Waitrose supermarket, banks and all amenities, as well as the nearby coastal town of Bude with its sandy beaches and amazing coastal walks, which is approximately 8 miles from the property.

This high specification family home offers bright and spacious open plan living with limestone flooring throughout the ground floor and bespoke solid oak staircase for first floor. Exceptionally low running costs are achieved with the combination of triple glazing, mechanical ventilation and heat recovery system and solar panels making this a very low energy efficient home with an EPC A 97 rating!

The well-appointed accommodation briefly comprises, entrance porch, living room with sliding doors leading out to the terrace seating area, large open plan kitchen/dining room, study/ground floor bedroom 4, shower room with limestone tiling, utility/plant room, boot room and a useful walk-in pantry. On the first floor there is a stunning principal bedroom with a walk-in wardrobe, ensuite shower room, two further double bedrooms and a bathroom.

Outside there is extensive off-road parking, a large detached double garage, productive vegetable beds with polly tunnels, orchard with a variety of fruit trees and an enclosed paddock.

DIRECTIONS

From Bude head out of town towards Stratton and then take the A3072 towards Holsworthy. As you enter the town of Holsworthy, take the left-hand turning opposite BP garage signposted Chilsworthy/Bradworthy. Continue along this road until reaching Chilsworthy and the property will be located on the right hand side just before leaving the village.
