Directions

From Bude proceed south on the A39 towards Camelford, taking the right-hand turning signposted Rosecare, just after the Crackington Haven turning at Wainhouse Corner. Follow this road for approximately 1 mile into the hamlet of Rosecare, passing the green on the left and the property will be located a short distance along on the right hand side set back down a gravel drive with a wooden five bar entrance gate.

Alders Park , Rosecare

St. Gennys, Bude, Cornwall , EX23 0BE

Price £650,000

An extremely rare opportunity to acquire a substantial detached bungalow situated on a generous and private plot of circa 0.6 acres, which enjoys both coast and country views whilst also being within easy reach of the National Trust coast paths and nearby beach of Crackington Haven. We feel the property would suit those wanting either a main or second residence and it offers tremendous scope for either basic updating or a more contemporary makeover with room for further extensions if required.

The accommodation comprises; entrance, large hall, kitchen/diner, utility, WC, large triple aspect sitting room with stunning views, three double bedrooms with en-suite to master and a further family bathroom. There is also an attached double garage off of the utility that could be easily converted if required (subject to planning permission).

The gardens area laid to lawn and the extent of the plot is believed to be close to 0.6 acre.
