Nestled within the esteemed Georgian town of Beverley, Hornbeam Lodge presents an exceptional contemporary residence, extending to over 3,600 square feet. This remarkable property stands as a sophisticated example of modern architectural design, thoughtfully integrated within its historically significant location. The clean design aesthetic and minimalist exterior establish a striking yet harmonious contrast with the more traditional vernacular of adjacent properties.

Stepping inside, one is immediately struck by the breathtaking open-plan living space. Here, light pours in, a generous gift from the full-height glass wall that curves gracefully towards the south-west facing garden. This architectural flourish not only bathes the spacious interior in natural light but also frames picturesque views of the greenery and water feature beyond. The living area exudes a sense of calm and refined beauty, a tranquil sanctuary that feels worlds away from the lively heart of the market town just minutes away.

The kitchen, the true heart of this home, is a testament to modern living. State-of-the-art appliances gleam beneath the soft glow of a cleverly designed feature light tunnel. Ascending to the first floor, the generously sized bedrooms offer havens of comfort and relaxation. But the true showstopper is the absolutely amazing roof terrace, complete with a sleek glass balustrade, inviting residents to soak up the sun's warmth from both the south and the west. Additional well-appointed bedrooms and a family bathroom ensure ample space for a growing family.

Outside, the beautiful rear garden unfolds, a private oasis bordered by mature trees and charming walled boundaries. It's a space perfect for hosting gatherings, creating lasting memories, or simply finding a quiet corner to unwind. Built to an exceptionally high specification, Hornbeam Lodge is a home designed for the future, incorporating sustainable and energy efficient technologies.

Convenience is also key, with excellent off-street parking accessed via an electric gate, as well as a secure garaging facility. In essence, Hornbeam Lodge is more than just a modern house in an old town. It is a shining example of how contemporary design can not only coexist but also enhance the beauty and character of a historic setting. It stands proudly as a testament to thoughtful architecture, a place where modern living and timeless charm seamlessly intertwine.
