Offered to the market with no onward chain, a well presented three bedroomeed detached house in a superb cul-de-sac position with a Southerly facing garden.

Boasting a modern kitchen and bathroom, the property has two well-proportioned reception rooms, in addition to a conservatory with three double bedrooms to the first floor and a house bathroom.

Situated in the Molescroft Primary School catchment and in a superb position with a Southerly facing garden and a gate onto the old Hudson Way, viewing of this property is strongly recommended.

LOCATION

The property is located on the small cul-de-sac that forms Tadman Close, which is accessed off Carter Drive, via Nornabel Drive on the extremely popular modern development on the Northern side of Beverley town centre. Serviced by Molescroft Primary School and in a superb position backing (with a gate) onto a footpath (Hudson Way) which provides for a scenic walk, or cycle into the centre of town, or out into the country, the garden has a Southerly aspect.
