Old Coaching House, 43 North Bar Within, Beverley HU17
£795,000

- Fabulous characterful period house
- Grade II Listed building - built 1770
- Central town location
- Extensive off-street parking with electric gate
- Westerly facing garden
- Six bedrooms, three bathrooms
- EPC - D
- Council Tax Band: E

A superb, quirky, characterful and large period house with a fabulous town centre location. Originally the Tiger Inn and built in 1770, this beautiful and historic property extends to approximately 3,200 square feet and offers a fabulous and flexible layout arranged over three floors. The living rooms are located at first floor level with an attractive garden room which overlooks the Westerly facing garden.

Boasting six bedrooms and three bathrooms, the property has been sympathetically enhanced in recent years without losing any of its period charm. The extensive parking is accessed off Tiger Lane through an electric gate.

LOCATION

The property is located in the historic Georgian Quarter of Beverley and above three retail units. With a front door off North Bar Within, there is also vehicular access off Tiger Lane and pedestrian access off North Bar Within. This superb central location provides ease of access to all the amenities of Beverley as well as the Westwood Pastures.

OUTSIDE

The rear garden is surprisingly large for a property in the centre of Beverley. Having a Westerly aspect, there is extensive parking to the rear which is accessed through electric sliding gates off Tiger Lane. The garden is relatively private with a patio area adjacent to the rear of the house and which is accessed both from the rear door from the hallway and also from the spiral staircase from the garden area. With a central lawn and a generous area with raised vegetable boxes bordered by new railway sleepers, the garden has a number of cherry trees which have been recently pollarded and create an attractive backdrop to the garden.

AGENT'S NOTE
