An extremely attractive and characterful 1930's house having a unique design and a prominent position on Beverley's most sought after cul-de-sac. This fabulous property has undergone a recent full renovation and modernisation and boasts three double bedrooms, the master having a modern en-suite shower room. With a well proportioned living room with wood burning stove there is also a large open plan dining kitchen but with the property maintaining many characterful and distinctive features. The property benefits from recently fitted double glazing, a relatively new gas boiler and is situated on a generously sized plot which has been fully re-fenced to make it 'dog friendly'. Viewing is highly recommended.

LOCATION

The property occupies a prominent corner plot position on this most desirable of cul-de-sacs in Beverley. Accessed off, and set back from Molescroft Road, the property is in a fabulous location which still has the benefit of an attractive walk into Beverley town centre, which lies relatively close by. Surrounded by properties of similar architectural merit, this established and leafy location lies in the most sought after Molescroft area of Beverley and set just off a central green.
