This iconic and beautifully restored former Station House, with its larger-than-average annexe, commands a prime position overlooking the town of Tavistock, offering far-reaching views of Dartmoor. The Station House exudes Victorian elegance, featuring high ceilings, a wealth of character, tasteful décor, a stunning kitchen, three bedrooms (plus en-suite wet room), and a family bathroom.

The annexe, accessible via the main house or through its own entrance, provides spacious accommodation with two upstairs bedrooms (with en-suite and wet room), an additional downstairs walk-in wet room, and an open-plan kitchen/lounge –making it perfect for multi-generational living.

Approached via electric gates, the property offers parking for multiple vehicles, a large workshop, gardens at the front that showcase extensive views. The rear includes a large sun terrace courtyard garden. With so much to offer, this property must be viewed to be fully appreciated!
