Situated in a tranquil location, surrounded by beautiful rolling hills within the village of Stoodleigh, this 3/4 bedroom detached cottage is believed to originally date back to the 1600s and has been occupied by the current owner for over 45 years!

Description

Within the small village of Stoodleigh, this three/four bedroom detached cottage sits within its large, mainly level plot.

There is a large driveway with parking for three cars leading to the garage and workshop. The front door opens into a light, spacious entrance porch, leading through to the main house. There is a bathroom to the right with a bath and hand basin plus a separate WC. To the left, there is a utility with plumbing for a washing machine, space for further white goods and fitted storage cupboards opposite. A study/bedroom 4 can be found on from here.

The entrance hallway, an original part of the property, features beautiful lime plaster walls and intricate exposed beam ceilings. To the right, the kitchen has been extended to create a beautiful kitchen/diner with large windows, tall ceilings and triple aspect windows overlooking the garden. The kitchen has been recently refitted with cream, country-style units - perfectly in keeping with the style of this beautiful home. A mustard-yellow Rayburn sits within a brick surround. The lounge, also off the hallway, is a cosy room which is warmed by a log burner within an Inglenook fireplace complete with a bread oven. A staircase, enclosed with oak panels leads to the first floor, where three bedrooms are found - the main bedroom with fitted wardrobe cupboards.

The gardens of this cottage are bordered by a stream on one side, and countryside to the other. Offering two large, level lawns with mature shrub borders, this space is a serene, private haven of wildlife. The end of the garden offers a secret garden backing on to woodland behind with a small clear pond.
