Description

This charming and spacious family home offers versatile living across three floors and is ideally positioned next to a recreational park—perfect for outdoor play, dog walks, or weekend adventures with the kids.

The entrance hallway provides a welcoming first impression, with space for coat and shoe storage and stairs leading to the first floor. The bright and airy dining room boasts tall ceilings, a characterful open fireplace, and a generous under-stair cupboard—ideal for extra storage. To the front, the cosy lounge is filled with natural light from the bay window and features a wood-burning stove, creating a warm and inviting space for the whole family to relax.
