Step into a world where heritage meets contemporary living in this exceptional three-bedroom property, beautifully integrated with the preserved workings of a traditional water mill. Set in a peaceful rural location, this home offers character, space, and a truly one-of-a-kind lifestyle.

Description

Lower Ground Floor The heart of the home is a spacious, well-appointed kitchen featuring a central island, extensive wall and base units, and a seamless flow into the impressive dining room. Here, the exposed inner workings of the original water mill create a dramatic and unforgettable focal point. A practical utility area offers additional worktop space and plumbing for laundry appliances, while a rear shower room adds convenience. A door from the utility leads directly to the lush rear garden.

Ground Floor Enter through the welcoming hall, where the original mill stones take centre stage—a striking reminder of the property's rich history. This level also includes a generous double bedroom and a cosy lounge complete with a fireplace and ample storage.

First Floor Upstairs, two further double bedrooms await. The principal bedroom boasts an ensuite, walk-in wardrobe, and spacious dressing area, while the second bedroom also features its own dressing space. A family bathroom with bath, WC, and hand basin completes the accommodation.

Outside The rear garden is a tranquil haven, with a manicured lawn, serene pond, and a charming summer house—perfect for relaxing or entertaining. The crowning glory is the preserved water wheel, a stunning feature that anchors the property's historical significance and adds timeless appeal.

This is more than a home—it's a living piece of history, thoughtfully restored and ready to welcome its next chapter.
