Frome Park Road, Stroud, GL5 3LF

£695,000

NO ONWARD CHAIN Presenting a characterful Edwardian semi-detached house offering light and bright, flexible accommodation. A quiet, family friendly street, ideally placed, within close proximity to nearby schools and local amenities. The property sides a rugby field giving a spacious green feel to the exterior. Off street parking for two cars.

The house invites you in with its original period features; a cosy fireplace, tall ceilings, and wooden doors. The main sitting room charms with timbered wood floors, a cast iron fireplace, and access to the garden. It's so spacious, it could be easily divided if needed into a library or further dining space. Reception room two is a breakfast room which opens into the kitchen. This house is a delightful host to five bedrooms, with the first bedroom presenting a large double with open views. The convenience of two bathrooms; one on the first floor with a classic roll-top bath, and another on the top floor. Adding to the charm of the house's location is its lawned garden with a landscaped, flagstone area and abundant apple tree casting enough shade for a cosy seating area. It's just a short walk into town, so whether you're looking for a family home or quiet spot to nest near the centre of Stroud, this house is an ideal choice.
