Walls Quarry, Brimscombe, GL5 2PA

Offered with No Chain, Hunters Estate Agents are proud to present this charming three-bedroom detached Cotswold stone cottage, complete with a self-contained one-bedroom annexe currently operating as a successful Airbnb. Steeped in history and believed to date back to the mid-16th century, the property was once the village pub before being thoughtfully converted into a beautiful family home in the 1980s. Many original period features have been lovingly preserved, and the cottage enjoys stunning views over the picturesque Golden Valley.

The main house offers well-appointed accommodation across four levels. The ground floor features a welcoming dining room and a cosy sitting room, both with log burners, alongside a country-style kitchen/breakfast room. On the first floor, you'll find a spacious bedroom, a second bedroom with an adjoining dressing area or study, and a family bathroom. The top floor hosts a third bedroom and an additional shower room, while the lower ground floor includes a practical utility room, shower room, and a cellar—perfect for storage or wine.

The separate one-bedroom annexe boasts its own private entrance and comprises a kitchen/living room, conservatory, bedroom, and shower room—ideal for guests or continued Airbnb use.

Externally, the property enjoys a delightful, tiered garden planted with an array of fruit trees and shrubs, creating a peaceful retreat. Across the road, there is off-street parking and a substantial stone outbuilding that includes a garage, additional storage, and a versatile upper floor space suitable for a home office, workshop, or studio.
