Farm Cottages, Racecourse Lane, Stourbridge, DY8 2RJ

Occupying an exclusive position amongst this highly desirable lane opposite Stourbridge Golf Club and backing on to open fields, is this beautifully presented and well appointed three bedroom semi detached cottage. Having been sympathetically modernised by the current owners showcasing contemporary interiors throughout, the property still retains its character and charm and is the perfect blend of both old and new. To summarise the accommodation, prospective buyers can expect an entrance hall with newly installed double glazed composite door, well appointed lounge with wood burning stove and shutters, space for dining table and homeworking, country-style fitted kitchen, utility, downstairs cloakroom and garage completing the ground floor. Continuing upstairs are three well proportioned bedrooms, bedrooms one and two benefitting from built in wardrobes and traditional column radiators, whilst the third bedroom is currently servicing as a dressing room. The stunning family bathroom comprises of four piece suite with rainfall shower head and large bath with surface mounted taps all with striking black finishing. The rear garden is largely laid to lawn with decked seating and gated side access. Offering a semi rural feel this is well matched to those looking for a property surrounded by the countryside yet still has the practicalities of being closely positioned to Stourbridge Town, Pedmore and Hagley.
