Old Rose Cottage, New Road, Caunsall, DY11 5YN

Offers Over £595,000

Old Rose Cottage is a charming example of a detached period-style property encompassed by the idyllic countryside of ancient Worcestershire Hamlet Caunsall. Favouring nearby calming trails and uninterrupted views over adjacent rear fields; this beautiful home is well paired to those seeking a slower-pace, semi rural life-style. Occupying a rare and substantial size plot, with extortionary stretched rear garden fantastic for young families to relish, has the additional benefits including a detached garage and workshop. Boasting versatile and flexible living through three well proportioned reception rooms includes a music room with featured exposed brick chimney breast, dining room with sash window, access to cellar and family room leading to the garden all benefitting from log burning stoves for those returns from muddy walks. The kitchen is complete with a range of fitted appliances and boasts a Rayburn and leads into a conservatory where there is approved planning for a single-storey rear extension to elevate the property's living space and further complement its existing layout. Planning reference: 23/0547/PNH. Completing the property downstairs and adding an essential sense of practicality is a useful utility and ground floor cloakroom. Continuing upstairs the property showcases four well proportioned bedrooms, one with en suite, modern family bathroom and commanding views over the rear garden. Prospective purchasers can take full advantage of being positioned between Wolverley, Kinver and Cookley Villages and further market Town Kidderminster as well as being in catchment of reputable nearby schools and the popular pub at the end of the road 'The Anchor'.
