1 Stableford Bungalows, Bridgnorth, WV15 5LS

Please note the current sellers are in the process of building a new build bungalow next door to Stableford Bungalows and this is the reason for the sale of the property

Enveloped within this picturesque Shropshire hamlet with calming views over the nearby Valley and rolling countryside, is this secretly positioned and immaculately presented three bedroom detached bungalow. Occupying an envious central position with direct access to Wolverhampton City, Telford and pretty market Town Bridgnorth, prospective purchasers have the luxury of an array of amenities for convenience whilst effortlessly falling alongside nearby country trails including Badger Dingle with its wooded walks ideal for foraging. Ahead of its secluded approach this bungalow is positioned in a private lane with a large block paved driveway and detached garage with roller shutter door and bespoke timber framed vaulted storm porch. Continuing through its welcoming entrance hall later leads to a comfortable-size lounge with log burner and bay window with fitted window seat, beautiful open plan kitchen diner with integrated appliances and french doors to garden, separate utility, cloakroom, three generous size bedrooms and gorgeous bathroom with roll top bath and traditional style fittings. The rear garden is mature and is mostly laid to lawn with patio perfect for outdoor entertaining, raised sleepers with planted shrubs and far reaching and uninterrupted views of the countryside over its low-level fences. Final benefits of the property include being a short distance from an abundance of fishing lakes and nearby villages Albrighton and Pattingham for convenience, offers a delightful farm shop and food hall in Stockton for various niceties and is down the road from Chesterton Valley Golf Course.
