Heather Drive, Kinver, Stourbridge, DY7 6DR

Summary...

A beautifully presented and deceptively spacious three double bedroom semi detached home. Occupying a prominent elevated position in this well established and quiet cul de sac with stunning far reaching views; the property is conveniently located close to the sought-after Village of Kinver with a variety of nearby amenities and calming countryside trails and briefly comprises of welcoming I-shaped reception hall with useful store cupboard, spacious through lounge with ample space for seating and dining with log burning stove, modern shaker-style fitted kitchen complete with Quartz worksurfaces, centre island and in-built appliances, bright and airy multi-functional garden room, guest WC and utility adding an essential sense of practicality. Continuing upstairs leads to three well-proportioned bedrooms, master with large en suite with bath and shower and family bathroom. The rear garden has been meticulously landscaped with patio and chipping stone seating with gated side access to the front of the property which has a good-size driveway and EV charging point. Additional benefits include fantastic far reaching views, calming walks along Kinver Edge and easy access to Stourbridge and Kidderminster Town Centres. This property is a perfect all-rounder and a great fit for families with viewings highly recommended to appreciate what's on offer.
