About the Property

A sublime and bespoke design, nestled away and situated in this highly sought after residential area, backing onto woodland with countryside walks on your doorstep. This stunning three bedroom detached residence was constructed by the current owners approximately 11 years ago. This unique property is offered for sale in excellent decorative order with the hub of the house being the large open plan kitchen/dining/living room with doors opening out onto the raised terrace. The rear garden is private and the vendors have terraced the area to provide a vegetable garden and well stocked raised beds, along with a raised decked terraced area set immediately to the rear of the property. Further benefits include a double detached garage with two doors to the bottom and external stairs rising to the first floor which would be ideal as an office space or separate annex. The property is approached via gravelled driveway providing ample off road parking and low maintenance garden area with architectural shrub planting. Enter the property via porch to the front opening into hallway and downstairs wc, door leads through to the extensive open plan living area comprising of kitchen with ample storage and built in oven and microwave, large island with gas hob and extractor, space for tall fridge/freezer and windows looking out across the rear garden and woodland beyond, dining area and living area with double doors leading onto the raised terrace, opening to utility room. To the first floor are three good sized bedrooms with built in storage and the master bedroom having dressing room area leading through to en-suite shower room and further family bathroom. Further benefits include wood flooring, exposed beams, under flooring heating throughout, air source heat pump which provides additional heating in the winter and air conditioning in the summer and wood burning stove in the living area. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate this individual and stylish family home.
