Description

A brand new detached four bedroom family house, with stunning rural views.

The Nursery is an exclusive gated development of just four detached family homes currently being built by locally based developer, Classic Property Holdings. Each house has been specified with meticulous attention to detail and is available immediately.

The ground floor of this family home benefits from underfloor heating throughout and comprises an inviting entrance hall, 26' double aspect living room, bespoke German kitchen/dining room with granite work surfaces and Neff integrated appliances, study, utility room and guest cloakroom.

Upstairs, the principle bedroom features bi-fold doors onto an indulgent balcony, as well as an en-suite shower room. There are also three further double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

The property also benefits from a gated entrance leading to the double garage with space for a games room/office above and off street parking for several cars.
