INTRODUCTION

OFFERS INVITED BETWEEN £850,000 & £875,000 Addiscombe House is an outstanding yorkstone period residence standing prominently on Main Street within Elloughton village's attractive conservation area. Substantial accommodation includes up to 6 bedrooms across 3 floors plus there is a very sizable cellar which provides further potential. The property stands in a plot of approximately 0.3 acre with an automated gated entrance to the driveway and large double garage with room/gym above. The rear garden enjoys a westerly aspect. A host of improvements have been made over recent years, including the contemporary twist of an open plan kitchen into a vaulted day room which overlooks the garden. The property has a wealth of character and retains many beautiful period features including fine cornicing, ceiling roses, deep architraves and high ceilings. Viewing is an absolute must to appreciate the sumptuous appeal of this fabulous home. The accommodation is depicted on the attached floorplan and briefly comprises an impressive hallway, three grand reception rooms plus a stunning kitchen which is open plan in style through to the vaulted day room. There is also a cloak/W.C., and a staircase leading down to the cellar rooms. At first floor are three large double bedrooms, two being ensuite, a superb house bathroom and a store room/office. Upon the upper floor, lie three further bedrooms including a suite which is approx. 29 feet long having a 'walk in wardrobe' and ensuite situated off. As previously noted, the sizable cellar has much potential, currently organised into a number of useful storerooms and utility. Outside there is an attractive ornamental garden to the front, bounded by a stone wall and wrought iron railing. A resin driveway leads through automated solid gates to the parking courtyard and large double garage which has an internal staircase leading above to a space ideal as a gym/office. Directly to the rear of the house extends a flag paved patio with lawn beyond, enjoying a sunny west facing aspect.

LOCATION

The property occupies a prominent position within the Elloughton conservation area which comprises many homes of distinction and character. This highly regarded position is ideally placed for access to the amenities of either Elloughton or Brough. The village is extremely desirable being situated on the edge of the Yorkshire Wolds, with its centre clustered around the small attractive village church. Elloughton has a well reputed primary school and lies within the catchment area for South Hunsley School. The nearby A63 provides convenient access to Hull City centre to the east or the national motorway network to the west. The neighbouring village of Brough is a growing community and provides a good range of local shops including variety of supermarkets. Other amenities include Brough Golf Course, Ionions rugby club and sport centre, Welton Waters activity centre and walking can be enjoyed along the Wolds Way. The area is also ideal for the cyclist or nature lover. A mainline railway station is to be found in Brough which has a regular service to Hull and London Kings Cross.
