INTRODUCTION

Hook House is a fine example of a significant Grade II listed Georgian residence, being one of the most prominent and important houses in the area. The property exhibits a wealth of period features and has been sympathetically refurbished at considerable expense by the current owners to create a home of great appeal and elegance. Indeed this beautiful home has become a real "labour of love" for the owners who will be loath to leave, albeit due to family circumstances. The property stands in grounds of around 0.6 of an acre on the fringe of this delightful riverside village, overlooking countryside to the front, with views towards Howden Minster. The formal garden is secure being ideal for children and pets. The stunning accommodation extends to over 5,500 sq. feet plus extensive cellars and substantial attic space which also has further potential, perhaps as a cinema room. There is also an attractive substantial brick and pitched tiled roof. The outbuilding, formally stables, complete with an array of features, which currently comprises a large garage, store and workshop extending to approximately 1,700sq. feet. The building affords great potential for conversion into a variety of uses such as annex accommodation, leisure or "work from home" space, subject to appropriate permissions being obtained. As depicted on the attached floorplan, the formal accommodation includes an impressive central entrance, 3 grand reception rooms, study, kitchen, family room and utility. There are 6 bedrooms, dressing room, 2 bathrooms and a library to the first floor. Outside, the property has a wide frontage to Church Lane and the block set driveway provides ample parking, turning and access to the garage and former stables.

LOCATION

Hook House is situated in the popular residential riverside village of Hook being approximately 1.5 miles north east of Goole town centre. This delightful village is home to many period properties and has the benefit of a village convenience store, children's play park and access to riverside and country walks. The village also has a thriving primary school rated outstanding by Ofsted. The property lies approximately 2 miles from Junction 36 of the M62 motorway which links into the national motorway network and regional centres. The property is close to railway stations at Howden and Goole. The station at Howden offers cross country travel and direct access to London.
