This fine detached house has been significantly extended over the years and provides particularly spacious accommodation with many features complimented by a stunning garden, excellent parking and a double garage. The accommodation is depicted on the attached floorplan and briefly comprises an impressive entrance reception, cloaks/W.C., dining room and an outstanding living room with a part vaulted ceiling. Given the size of the plot and the location, there is plenty of scope for further extension/remodelling should a purchaser desire even more.
