INTRODUCTION

This fabulous barn conversion is part of a highly desirable courtyard development, and offers the very best of contemporary living. This stunning home enjoys a very high specification which includes underfloor heating throughout. The living space is arranged predominantly in an open plan style with a tiled floor extending through the lounge, dining area and kitchen. There is also a lovely orangery with double doors opening out to the rear enclosed paved garden. Upstairs are 2 bedrooms with fitted wardrobes and a stylish bathroom. The accommodation also has the benefit of uPVC double glazing. The property forms part of a select gated development arranged around a shared courtyard with attractive raised planting beds. The rear enclosed garden space is accessed from the orangery and the kitchen and is a quiet space to sit in. A garage also forms part of the property which has an automated up and over entry door.

LOCATION

The property lies within Easenby Close, an attractive cul-de-sac situated off Main Street to the eastern fringe of the village centre. One of the regions most sought after locations, Swanland has an attractive centre where a number of shops can be found including a chemist and convenience store/post office. There are a number of amenities and recreation facilities such as a tennis and bowls club and childrens playing field. The village boasts a well reputed primary school with secondary schooling at the nearby South Hunsely school at Melton. A number of public schools are also available. Convenient access to the A63 leads to Hull City Centre to the east and the national motorway network to the west. A mainline railway station lies approximately 15 minutes driving distance away at Brough which provides intercity connections.
