INTRODUCTION

In need of some general investment/improvement with a potential of creating a significantly higher value, is this beautiful former Georgian farmhouse. Ideal for those looking for a stand out property to put their own stamp on. Laurel Farm is a fine Georgian grade II listed former farmhouse standing in established south facing gardens. Providing wonderful family accommodation this delightful home is believed to date back to the mid 1700's and is bursting with character and period features. The accommodation briefly comprises five bedrooms, four reception rooms, a stunning breakfast kitchen with Aga plus an office / gym / games room. The property is approached across a sweeping driveway which arrives at the house and the double garaging. Mature borders provide much privacy to the boundaries. The location of the property is particularly convenient for travelling with immediate access available to the A63 dual carriageway and excellent links to the surrounding area. A mainline railway station is also located in the nearby village of Brough. It is worth noting that the well regarded secondary school of South Hunsley is located within a short walk.

In all a fine period home with the wealth of period feature situated in this extremely convenient location.

LOCATION

The property is located on a "no thru' road" since the opening of the new A63 road layout which makes this a most appealing residential location. There is easy access to the neighbouring village of Welton, North Ferriby and Swanland. The nearby South Hunsley Academy, which regularly features highly in the league tables for East Riding lies within a short walk. The nearby village of Brough provides the area with more extensive facilities including a wide range of shops and amenities, in addition to having its own mainline railway station. The location is ideal for commuting with immediate access available to the A63 leading into the M62 motorway network to the west or into Hull city centre to the east.
