LOCATION

The Green is an attractive and established cul-de-sac setting situated off Westerdale which in turn is accessed via Dale Road. Swanland can trace its history back to at least the 13th century and is surrounded by open countryside, situated to the south east corner of the Yorkshire Wolds. The village enjoys good transport links being close to the A63 to Hull and Leeds and the main motorway network. The community benefits from a surprising number of shops including a convenience store, clubs and facilities. The focal point of the village is the picturesque pond overlooked by the Swan & Signet pub, the village hall, library and church. Swanland has a welcoming atmosphere, there is always plenty of village activities going on throughout the year to cater for most tastes and interests. Pre-school group is popular and Swanland primary school is regularly rated as 'outstanding' by Ofsted attracting families with young children.
