Elloughton and Brough lie on the banks of the Humber Estuary, home to the Roman settlement of Petuaria and being the gateway to the beautiful rolling countryside of the Yorkshire Wolds. The immediate area has an excellent range of facilities including leading brand supermarkets, a variety of shops, delicatessen, butchers, doctors surgery, dentist, public houses, churches, restaurants, cafes and beauty salons, plus a number of takeaway options.

The dual carriageway of the A63 is approximately 1 mile distant leading to Hull city centre to the east and the M62 and national motorway network to the west.

Brough and Elloughton have well reputed junior schools with secondary schooling available at South Hunsley in the nearby village of Melton. Private schooling is also available including Hymers Collage in Hull, Tranby in Anlaby and Pocklington School.

The historic and vibrant market town of Beverley which features regularly as being one of the most desirable places to live in the country, lies approximately 20 minutes driving time away and affords a fabulous selection of shops, both independent and national, together with a number of quality restaurants, bars and its own flat racecourse.
