INTRODUCTION

This 3 bedroomed detached bungalow stands to one corner of a small cul-de-sac setting providing good parking, garage and attractive gardens. Originally built by Scruton Homes, this well proportioned bungalow has good room sized and briefly comprises an entrance hallway, dining kitchen, spacious lounge, rear conservatory, three bedrooms and bathroom. To one corner of the main bedroom lies a "walk in" dressing room which has plumbing available to allow the creation of an en-suite. Gardens have been landscaped for ease of maintenance and to the rear include attractive borders, paved patio and a Koi pond with adjacent decking. Viewing is certainly recommended to appreciate the size and appeal of the accommodation.

LOCATION

The property is located in the cul-de-sac position along Nunburnholme Avenue, close to the centre of this highly regarded west Hull village. North Ferriby lies approximately 8 miles to the west of Hull and offers a great range of local shops and amenities including a convenient store. There are a number of recreational facilities plus a well reputed junior school with secondary school available at the nearby South Hunsley in Melton. The village boasts a mainline railway station which can be found a short walk away and there is convenient access to the A63 leading into Hull City Centre to the east, the Humber Bridge or the national motorway network to the west.
