INTRODUCTION

This attractive double-fronted property, located on the highly sought-after Barrow Lane, has been beautifully updated to create a modern and inviting home. The layout is both versatile and practical, with gas central heating and uPVC double glazing for comfort and efficiency.

The ground floor features a bright, dual-aspect lounge with French doors that open to the garden, a separate dining room, and a rear lobby with a cloaks/W.C. The highlight of the main level is the stunning, newly fitted kitchen, which is open-plan to the dining room and includes stylish units, sleek worktops, and a central island. Upstairs, the home offers four bedrooms and a contemporary family bathroom with a separate bath and shower. Outside, there is excellent parking at the front of the property, and the good-sized rear garden includes a large patio and a lawn, making it perfect for outdoor living.

LOCATION

Located on the highly desired Barrow Lane, this attractive property is situated in the heart of Hessle, a vibrant town on the western edge of Hull. The home is just a short walk from Hessle Square and The Weir, offering convenient access to a wide variety of shops, pubs, and restaurants.

The Weir is a bustling hub featuring an array of amenities, including cafés, stylish cocktail bars, designer boutiques, and salons, while Hessle Square offers a supermarket, chemist, banks, and more. Families will appreciate the local schooling, which includes Hessle All Saints Church of England and Hessle Penshurst for primary education, and Hessle High School for secondary.

Transport links are excellent, with Hessle's own mainline railway station providing direct services to Hull, Brough, and even London King's Cross. The property also offers easy access to the iconic Humber Bridge and the A63, connecting you to Hull city centre and the national motorway network.
