INTRODUCTION

This substantial five bedroomed period property stands in the sought after tree lined boulevard of Nunburnholme Avenue and enjoys a westerly facing rear aspect. This fine semi detached house has an independent building (approx. 460 sq.ft.) to the rear of the garage, formerly used as a doctor's surgery, and now affords the opportunity to become work space or annexed accommodation for an incoming purchaser and currently is separately rated for business use. Gas, water and electricity are laid on. The main accommodation provides elegantly proportioned accommodation over three storeys and is ideal for family occupation. The ground floor briefly comprises an entrance porch, lovely entrance reception, living room, sitting room, dining room, garden room, breakfast kitchen, utility and W.C. At first floor are a combination of four bedrooms served by a bathroom and shower room. A large fifth bedroom is located on the upper floor. The accommodation has the benefit of gas fired central heating to radiators and majority replacement uPVC framed double glazing.

Established gardens extend to both front and rear elevations which itself enjoys a westerly aspect being mainly lawned and bounded by mature borders. In all a fine home of great character in a highly desirable location.

LOCATION

Nunburnholme Avenue is a tree lined street in the centre of the village and can be accessed via Parkfield Avenue which links into New Walk. North Ferriby offers a good range of local shops and amenities plus a well reputed primary school as well as the nearby South Hunsley secondary school. Convenient access is available to the A63 leading into Hull City Centre to the east or the national motorway network to the west. North Ferriby also has a railway station.
