INTRODUCTION

Oakleigh Cottage is a most desirable and individual property situated in the heart of this charming rural village. Affording extremely spacious accommodation of great character and appeal, there are four bedrooms, two being en-suite, excellent living space and grounds of around 1.1 acre complete with a large garage complex and a variety of outbuildings and log cabins. Blacktoft is situated on the north bank of the River Ouse some 20 miles to the west of Kington Upon Hull, 6 miles east of Howden and 26 miles distant to York. This peaceful retreat offers a blend of tranquillity and history together with the renowned Blacktoft Sands Nature Reserve. The current owners have enhanced the property significantly since arriving some 20 years ago creating what is a fabulous family home, now waiting for its next custodian. The accommodation extends to around 3,300sq.ft and is depicted on the attached floorplan and briefly comprises five reception areas, open plan kitchen, four bedrooms including a superb principal suite with dressing area, en-suite and balcony which provides views to the south across the river. Overall the land holding extends to around 1.1 acre (which is held in two titles) with formal gardens, small side paddock and a variety of outbuildings including four log cabins ideal as entertainment/work from home spaces. A particular feature is a substantial garage block with its garage bay, W.C., log store and upstairs room, ideal for many uses.

LOCATION

The rural hamlet of Blacktoft is situated on the north bank of the River Ouse, yet is well connected to the surrounding area with shops, schools and general amenities within striking distance. There is a train station located at nearby Gilberdyke and the M62 motorway network lies approximately 10 miles driving time away.
