The accommodation extends to over 3,500sq.ft. which retains gorgeous period features and character blended effortlessly with many modern luxuries including a fabulous living kitchen extension, itself linking to a former coach house creating further living space and a vaulted bedroom suite above, ideal as a principal suite or separate annexe. In addition, there are four further bedrooms within the original house being served by a bathroom and a shower room. There are three formal reception rooms with beautiful fireplaces, a 24ft long south facing conservatory, a 16ft utility room with feature Victorian range and stairs lead down to a very useful cellar. The heart of the house is the contemporary living kitchen of approximately 530sq.ft. with kitchen having a grand marble topped island, space to relax and also dine, with a large ceiling lantern light and bi fold doors allowing light to flood in. It is also worth noting that attached to the former coach house are further outbuildings/barn which provides additional potential for conversion, subject to appropriate permissions.
