Description.

Located to the south of Newbury and within a short walk of the town centre, shops and mainline rail station are a selection of brand new three bedroom homes by established developer Charles Church.

The properties have been finished to high standard throughout and, for peace of mind, come with a 10 year insurance backed warranty, the first two years being covered by Charles Church themselves. Contact us to discover how making one of these properties your home may well be easier than you imagine with part exchange and incentives options available.

The light and airy accommodation consists of entrance hall, cloakroom, kitchen/breakfast room, living/dining room with French doors to the rear garden, master bedroom with en-suite shower room, further second double bedroom, single bedroom and bathroom. Outside there is a rear garden with shed and driveway providing parking for two cars.
