Location.

Upper Bucklebury lies approximately six miles to the north east of Newbury and is surrounded by stunning countryside. The village has a general store, a public house and primary school. There is easy access to Reading, Thatcham and Newbury.

The pretty market town of Newbury offers a wide range of shopping facilities including a twice weekly local market, pedestrianised high street with local and national retail stores and major grocery outlets. There is a variety of cafes, restaurants and bars, a multi-screen cinema and the historic Corn Exchange theatre. There is a major rail station with links to London Paddington, the City of London and the West Country, and excellent access to the M4/A34 junction.
