Built in the 1820's as part of a larger house, this attached Grade II Listed property has grand proportions and plenty of character. The property sits in approximately an acre of land and is set back from the main road which is also shielded by mature trees. The property is located just to the south of Newbury in Headley and is within easy reach of Basingstoke, Newbury, and Thatcham. The wonderful grounds are to the front and side of the house and are separated into formal garden, woodland and part driveway. The accommodation consists of entrance hall, cloakroom, kitchen, dining room, living room, master bedroom, two further large double bedrooms and family bathroom. Benefits include oil-fired central heating, gas bottles for the hob, outbuilding, potential to create an in/out driveway and parking for eight vehicles.
