The walk in shower area is served by a 'soaker' mains fed shower and has a privacy glass panel. Heated ladder style towel rail and an opaque double-glazed window.

Exterior

The property is approached off Elmwood Lane via electric security gates onto a shared private drive which serves just two individual properties. At the end of the lane further remote controlled timber gates open to a large forecourt which provides turning facilities and parking for several vehicles. To the front of the house is an ornamental pond with rockery and low manicured hedge. An Indian stone laid patio leads you to the left side of the house providing a large seating area - ideal for patio furniture and al-fresco dining.

The rear garden is a true delight! South facing the garden offers shaped and manicured lawns surrounded by deep flower beds stocked well with a variety of flowering shrubs and trees. The Indian stone patio continues to the rear providing further areas to sit and enjoy the sun. The property as a whole enjoys a high degree of privacy.

To the right side of the property a resin footpath leads you to the rear of the garage where you can find the summer house, a timber shed which provides storage for garden tools and wood stores to the side of the garage.

Summer House

The summer house offers a great entertaining space/gym or office and offers a bar area, tv aerial, power and light.

Double Garage 5.49m x 5.49m (18'0" x 18'0")

A detached stone fronted double garage with remote controlled up-and-over door, power light, water tap and a personal side door.

Directions

Leaving our Garforth office head north on Main Street and continue to the traffic lights proceeding straight ahead into Barwick Road. Continue under the railway bridge and over the M1 motorway, continuing into Long Lane and on reaching Barwick-in-Elmet follow Long Lane to the T-junction and turn left into Leeds Road. Then take the first right into Elmwood Lane, where Elmwood Chase is situated on the left hand side just before the doctors surgery.
