Property Description

Situation

Located in a tucked away position within a small private close comprising of just three other properties, this individually designed house is situated slightly to the south of the town and just a few minutes' walk from the many amenities and open rural countryside. The historic and thriving market town of Eye is situated within the beautiful countryside running through the Waveney Valley lying on the north Suffolk borders and offers an excellent range of day-to-day amenities and facilities with a lovely assortment of period and historic properties. The larger market town of Diss lies seven miles to the north and offers an extensive range of amenities and facilities along with a mainline railway station with regular direct services to London Liverpool Street and Norwich.

Description

This property was individually designed and built 14 years ago of traditional brick and block cavity wall construction under a pitched clay tiled roof with colour wash rendered elevations. The house has sealed unit upvc double glazed windows and doors and is heated by a gas fired central heating boiler via radiators. Deceptive in size, the property offers an expanse of versatile living space in the region of 1,600 sq ft with the accommodation running over three floors and including a generously sized master bedroom and large luxury en-suite at second floor level. The property has been well maintained and cared for throughout and is presented in excellent decorative order and has well-proportioned rooms, all flooded by plenty of natural light.

Externally

The property is set back within a small private close approached via a brick weave driveway leading up to the property and adjacent single garage (measuring 16' 11" x 8' 11" (5.18m x 2.72m) with electric up and over door to front, storage space within eaves and power/light connected). The main gardens are separated into two areas lying to either aspect of the property with a formal garden lying to the south and a raised decking area abutting the rear of the property creating an excellent space for alfresco dining overlooking the garden and summer house beyond. The north aspect gardens are slightly larger in size and being well established they offer a great deal of privacy.
