COMMON QUESTIONS

1. Is this property freehold or leasehold? The property is owned freehold, with a chief rent payable to S Kershaw and Sons of £6 per annum. Most chief rents in England and Wales that qualify as rent charges will end on 22 July 2037. This applies to the property only. The garden is currently classified as protected land and is leased to the owner as an allotment from Trafford Council, the cost of this is £52 per annum. We have a copy of the draft lease agreement which can be provided to a buyer and we understand it is around £7,000 to purchase this land.

2. Why are the current owners selling this property? The current owners are now looking to downsize and have located a property they hope to purchase, but cannot formalise a purchase until the sale is agreed on their current home. The current owners have lived here since 1994 and loved this property.

3. When was this property constructed? The owners have advised this house was built in 1904.

4. Who lives in the neighbouring houses? The owners have advised their neighbours are both owner occupier families and are lovely people.

5. What are the current owners favourite aspects of this property? The vendors have advised that they have enjoyed the proximity to the amenities offered in Altrincham town centre, the local schools, John Leigh Park, and the transport links. They have also enjoyed the community spirit on this road and said they have never had any trouble parking on the road as they have residents parking permits.

6. Have the owners had their boiler and electrics checked in recent years? Yes, the owners have advised they had a new gas boiler fitted in January 2025 and serviced in June 2025 and electrics checked in January 2025.
