No Onward Chain

Situated in the picturesque Rutland countryside within the sought-after Stocken Hall development, this charming property is well maintained and provides surprisingly spacious accommodation. Conveniently located just a short drive from the historic market town centres of Oakham, Stamford, and Grantham, with easy access to commuter routes via the A1 and nearby train stations. This semi-detached residence features versatile living spaces, including a well-equipped kitchen, a comfortable living room, three bedrooms, a family bathroom, off-road parking, a carport, and a sizable rear garden with captivating field views.

Approaching the front of the house, you enter through an inviting entrance hall leading to the bright and airy kitchen, equipped with ample wall-to-base units, space for freestanding appliances, and access to the rear garden. Moving to the next level, a newly carpeted and spacious living room awaits, along with a double bedroom offering scenic views of the beautiful countryside and a convenient WC. The ground floor encompasses a three-piece family bathroom and two generously sized bedrooms, both featuring windows overlooking the rear garden.

Positioned on a generously sized plot within Wilson Court, the property includes two parking spaces, one of which is situated under a covered carport. The low-maintenance rear garden is mostly laid to lawn, complemented by a patio area enclosed with a timber fence, providing a perfect spot to enjoy the serene countryside views. Ideal for those seeking a first home, upsizing or downsizing! Early viewings are highly recommended.
