Offering scope for development, this historic church school is uniquely positioned adjacent to All Saints Church in the sought-after village of Braunston, Rutland. This quaint 3-bedroom cottage is offered to the market with no chain, presenting a rare opportunity for those looking for a project with charm and character in abundance.

Entering via the porch and front door, guests are greeted with a spacious entrance hall, spanning the length of the ground floor. The main living room benefits from two large windows, as well as a feature open fireplace. Situated in the centre of the ground floor, bedroom one is spacious and complemented by a large window overlooking the property's courtyard garden.

Cedar Street boasts a spacious kitchen which flows into a conservatory with potential for use as a dining room or sunroom. The kitchen also houses a feature oil-fired Rayburn oven, which also provides central heating for the property. Bedroom three sits in the south-eastern corner of the property and is well-lit through a large window to the front aspect and may also be suited for use as a study. The ground floor accommodation is completed with a family bathroom/wet room, fitted with W/C, hand-basin and shower.

The property's first floor comprises a spacious twin-bedroom, with generous en-suite facilities, complete with a 3-piece suite and window to the property's western elevation.

Externally, the property boasts a well-designed courtyard garden laid with decorative flagstone, featuring raised beds and a sociable covered seating area.
