DESCRIPTION:

Manor Park is ideally situated on the outskirts of Runcorn, in between Daresbury Park and Runcorn's town centre. The park is located immediately off the A558, know as the Daresbury Express-way, with further links to the M56 motorway.

Runcorn also benefits from The Silver Jubilee bridge and the Mersey Gateway bridge connecting the town to neighbouring Widnes further improving connectivity to the local area and reducing traffic congestion.

There are two train stations in the town which provide direct services to Liverpool, Birmingham and London Euston from Runcorn station and Manchester Airport and North Wales from Runcorn East.

The Park is ideally located for air travel with Manchester Airport within a 30-minute drive and Liverpool John Lennon Airport with a 15-minute drive time.

Axis House is situated just a 5 minute walk from the North Priory Café and Gardens, providing a convenient off-site amenity for break times and informal meetings.
